Stephen T. Boretsky has served Tennessee High School in many capacities. As teacher, coach, athletic director, and principal he has helped THS to become one of the finest schools in this area. When Mr. "B" became principal in 1953, the enrollment was less than 600, and there were only seventeen classrooms in the "old" building. The faculty numbered 28. Mr. "B" has grown with the school. Today the student body of over 1,000, the 46 teachers, and a million dollar plant all function smoothly under his capable leadership. We all respect and admire his sound judgment and willingness to work in our behalf. We would like to extend our appreciation to Mr. Boretsky by dedicating the 1965 Cadmea to him.

A Special Tribute To Mr. "B"

Always willing to help students, Mr. Boretsky gives assistance to Jean Stair with her schedule.

Mr. "B" gives a pep talk for V-T game.

Larry Weddington and Darlene Brown, royalty of the Senior Class, are crowned by Mr. Boretsky.

Mr. Boretsky addresses the student body over the loud speaker.

Brenda Robertson and Joann Sieber serve Jack Hyder, Sally Pair, and Craig Caldwell at a Roman banquet.

Achievements

John Cowan and Leslie Countiss examine slides in biology.

Hugh Buckles, Joe Robinette, and Linda Mitrushi take part in Presidential election.

Good Times

Students cheer team to afternoon victory against Erwin.

Football players relax at Greenville pep session.

The Key Club helped us to start the year by giving instructions to the Freshmen and sponsoring a back-to-school dance. Having settled down to the routine activities, the club members started compiling the Directory. Along with their many school projects they undertook various civic projects which included selling peanuts for the Kiwanis Club and planting trees. At Christmas they brightened the outlook of a Santa Pal to the tune of $150.

During football season they served as ushers at each game and helped stimulate school spirit. V-T week found them selling balloons, buttons, and mums for the game. The basketball programs which they sold were invaluable to those who had trouble identifying players.

The highlight of the year's activities was Twirp Week during which the Key Club sponsored various activities to which the girls invited the boys.

Chuck Johnson, Judy McFaddin, and Jerry Thomas get ready to sell peanuts for the Kiwanis Club.

Vikings Post Close To Same Record As Last Year

The Norsemen of Tennessee High School were hurt considerably when the graduation of last year's senior class took many of their starting team. Despite this factor, the Vikings rebuilt their squad under the leadership of Clayton Powers, and they turned out a record of 3-7-0.

As the season opened, the Norsemen romped over Knoxville Bearden in a 14-0 victory. In the next two games the Vikings bowed to Greeneville and Baylor Prep in the final minutes of play.

Having the taste of victory still in their mouths and not letting their previous defeats get them down, the Vikings then defeated the Hilltoppers of Johnson City with a score of 16-0. They then fell into a slump and lost the next two ball games to Sevierville and Elizabethton with scores of 18-13 and 7-6. The Vikings then bounced back to crush the Erwin team by 32-6.

The Vikings ended up this year's season by being defeated in the last three games, and the city championship went to our north side rivals.

Managers: Richard Young, Jim Johnson, Tommy Pulliam.

Basketball

Coach Ernie Trosper

The 1964-65 Norsemen team brought forth a superb record this year. Winning twenty and losing seven, the Vikings, under the leadership of Coach Ernie Trosper, played some of the state's best teams and posted many upsets. The Vikings also put forth a fine showing in many tournaments and won its fifth city championship.

Several fine players highlighted this year's basketball team. Among these were Bob Stoots, Ralph Shook, Al Parker, Ford Caldwell, and Larry Weddington.

There were many exciting games in this year's schedule. These included the Bluff City game which we lost 46-47, both Virginia games, and a fine showing in which we defeated Holston Valley by a score of 82-32.

Dear Mom, I am so happy to hear that you are all well. I hope you will be many more years of life & without me.

Love you
 Vickie

We have been thinking of you and hope you are well. I hope you are not in the hospital. I hope you are well.
 Love you
 Vickie

PROSPECT*
 Rose Stuart

Now: the children's cries
 Are hushed somewhere on the blowing wind;
 The halls are silent and white floating skies
 Leave shadows where yard grasses are worn thin.
 New memories compel me to grow lonely
 To walk these empty corridors alone
 And hear my own footsteps resounding only
 Where youth once walked upon this hallow'd stone.
 The years have passed since they were running free
 And footsteps mingled with their talk and laughter;
 These living leaves have blown from Learning's Tree,
 When winds of time went by, they followed after.
 To earth's far ends they've gone: I don't know where,
 But I do know this place is lonely here.
